Engaging Consumers with a Dose of Southern Hospitality

Since 1976, the Insurance Consumer Affairs Exchange has provided a forum to share and resolve concerns and an opportunity for the exchange of information, ideas and experience among representatives from business, government and consumer organizations regarding all lines of business.

The mission of the ICAE is to promote professionalism and shape the standards of behavior in relationships between insurance organizations, regulators and customers through proactive dialogue, research, communication and education.

Please join us in 2021 to be part of these discussions.
